Evening at the Marine Corps Sunset Parade
Iwo Jima Memorial adjacent to Arlington National Cemetery
Tuesday July 19th 6:15 pm to 8 pm

Since September 1956, the Marine Corps Sunset Parade has been held every Tuesday during the summer against the Iwo Jima Memorial adjacent to Arlington National Cemetery. The club will mark off an area for members to sit together. So bring a blanket or lawn chairs and your picnic dinner and join the club for a memorable sunset evening. Let's plan to meet at the memorial at 6:15 for dinner / socializing. The performance begins 7:00 pm and lasts one hour. In order to plan for the club's designated area, please RSVP to jmahoel@msn.com.

The parking spots within the grounds of the memorial itself are off-limits to the public on ceremony evenings. Best bet is to park at the Arlington National Cemetery (for a small fee) and ride the free shuttle bus from the Visitors' Center to the Iwo Jima Memorial. The nearest Metro stations are either the Rosslyn stop on the Blue/Orange line or Arlington National Cemetery stop on the Blue line. It's about 10 minute walk from both—the walk from and through Arlington National Cemetery is more scenic (or you can ride the shuttle bus).
